Hannaford Credit and Debit Card Breach – Member Information

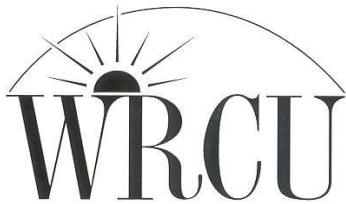

On March 17th, Hannaford Brothers Company announced that they had experienced a recent security breach that potentially compromised debit and credit cards utilized at Hannaford Supermarkets.

We have communicated with all of our members whose account cards may have been compromised. Although limited card data may have been exposed in this incident, that does not necessarily mean that data related to WRCU accounts was taken or that fraud has or will occur with those cards. Members should always review their WRCU, and other financial institution and credit card statements, to ensure that charges are accurately reflected.
